

Richmond Hill Public Library Board
FILMING AND PHOTOGRAPHY POLICY

1.0 SCOPE

Richmond Hill Public Library allows both amateur and commercial filming and photography in the Library provided there is no disruption of library service or cost to the library and that the library's image and reputation are preserved.

2.0 AMATEUR FILMING AND PHOTOGRAPHY

Richmond Hill Public Library allows amateur photography and videotaping on library premises with permission of the CEO or designate.

Library staff and customers may not be filmed without their permission.

Photography, filming and the use of all photographic devices are not allowed in the Library's washrooms.

3.0 COMMERCIAL FILMING AND PHOTOGRAPHY

3.1 Notice

Applicants of commercial film crews wishing to film must give at least two weeks' notice of their intent and must provide the CEO or designate in advance:

- the administration fee (see Section 3.4)
- an insurance certificate to the value of $2 million covering the duration of the film shoot and naming the Richmond Hill Public Library as the beneficiary
- a written synopsis of the film

3.2 Permit

Applicants of commercial film crews must have the Location Filming Permit (see Appendix 1) signed by the CEO or designate before any filming can commence.

Applicants must adhere to Richmond Hill Public Library's Location Filming Guidelines/Fees and acknowledge The Richmond Hill Public Library in the credits.

The Richmond Hill Public Library retains the right to refuse any request for filming in the Libraries.

3.3 Location Filming Guidelines

Food, beverages are not permitted in the Library other than those purchased from the Coffee Cart.

Smoking is not permitted in the Library.

A Library appointed security guard must be present during the film shoot; the applicant must cover all costs related to this service.

No major set construction or alteration of buildings is permitted.

All areas occupied in connection with the filming must be returned to their normal conditions in advance of normal library hours of operation.

Applicants must not make any connections to the electrical system other than through plugging into standard duplex receptacles. Covers from electrical panels or boxes must not be removed.

Applicants needing auxiliary sources of power must use silenced generators and suspend or cover all cables at their own expense.

Lighting is computer controlled at the Central Library and if changes in lighting are required the Library's operator must be hired at overtime rates and the applicant must cover any costs related to this service.

3.4 Fees

Fees for such use are as follows:

- A $530.60 plus HST Administration Fee payable in advance at time of application.
- $1,591.80 plus HST per calendar day (or part there-of).

All fees are non-refundable.

Richmond Hill Public Library may reduce or waive the fee for non-commercial production agencies and public broadcasting institutions producing educational and public interest programs, including documentaries.

3.5 Exceptions

This policy does not apply to news and public affairs coverage of library events, activities and personalities. This coverage must be approved and arranged by the CEO or designate.
